Program report

Event: Farewell Party

Date: March 30, 2019

Venue: Department of Botany

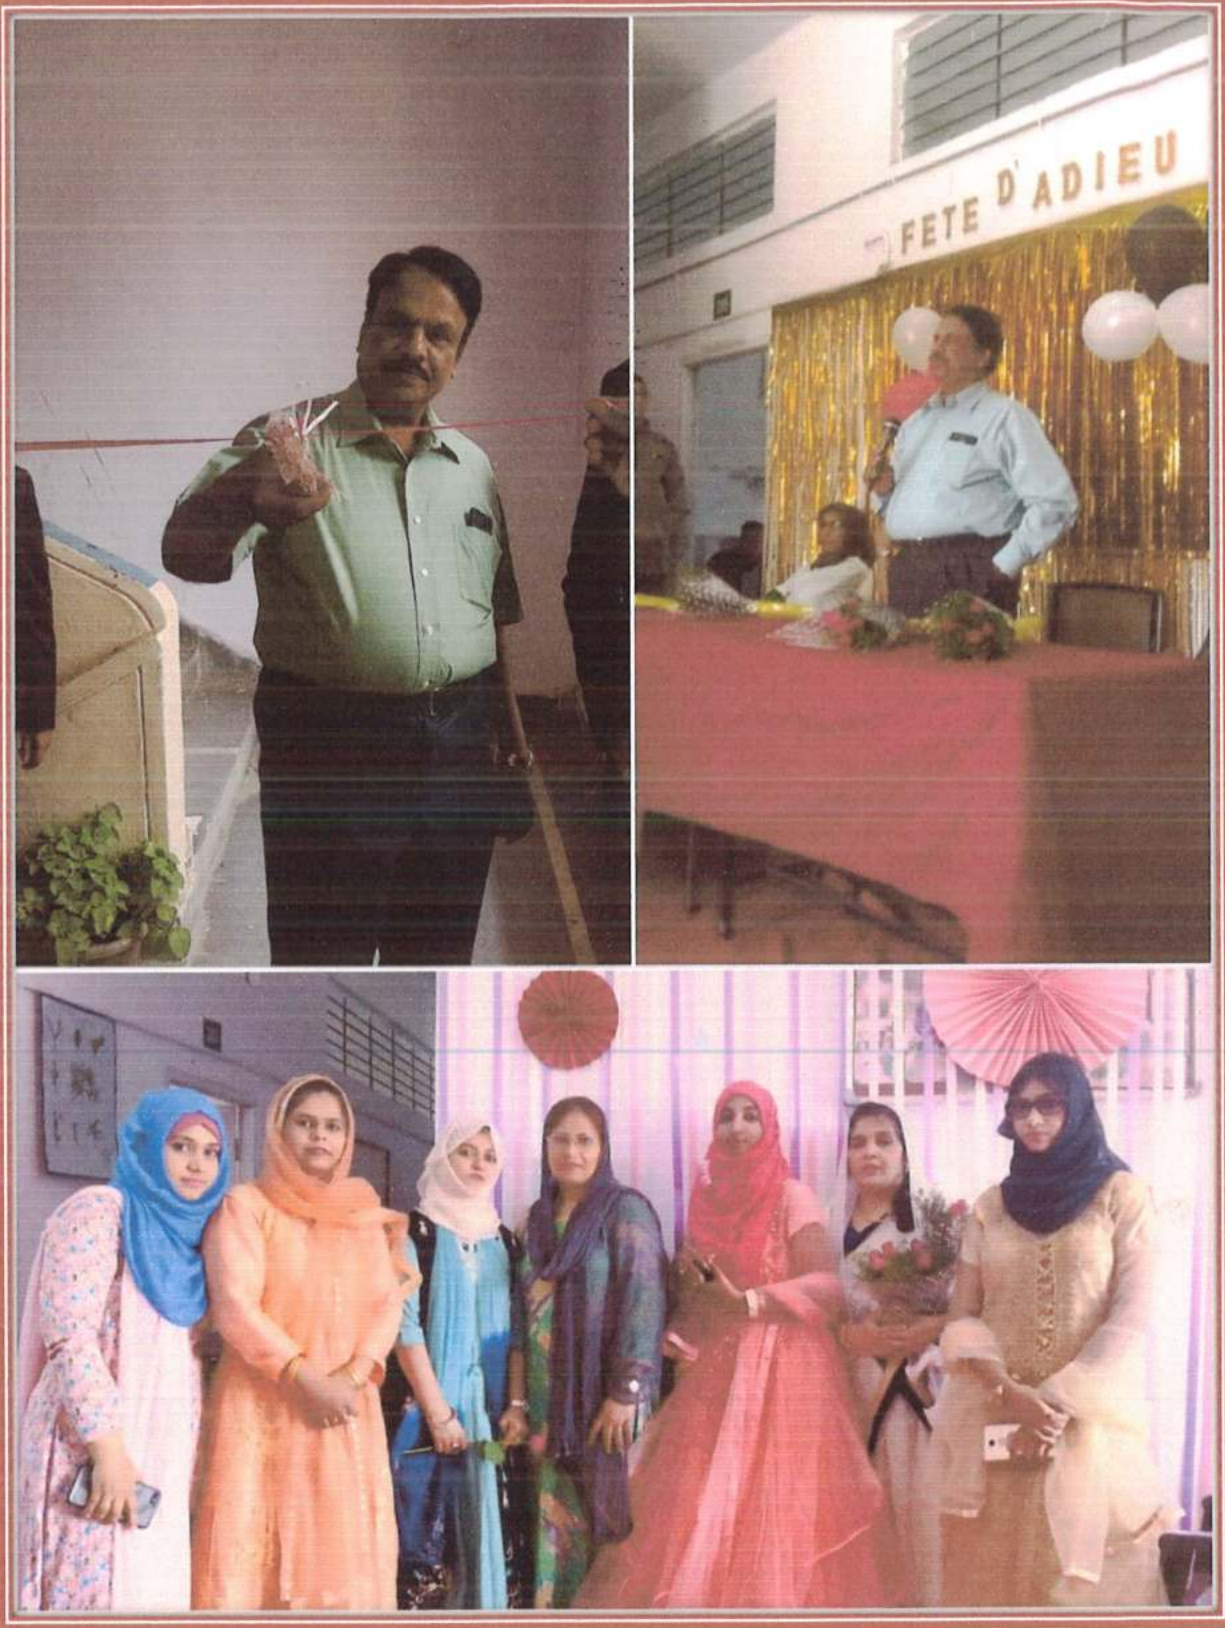

Organized by: Department of Botany Students

Number of Participants: 50

Fifty students gathered in the botany department for a farewell ceremony organized by the students. The Director performed the ribbon-cutting ceremony and inaugurated the event. Later, the HOD opened the occasion, and the institution's Director briefly discussed their intended endeavours. Students presented gifts to the speakers at a lunch to which the entire staff and the Director were invited. For both boys and girls, they scheduled interactive sessions; for the lecturers, they scheduled game sessions. The freshers also showcased their talent, like singing at the party. A gathering for seniors who will shortly leave that specific institute is known as a farewell party. Juniors employ various methods to wish their seniors well on their impending exciting travels, including singing, dancing, motivating speeches, and awarding them. Later, final-year students were asked for their opinions of the faculty and staff.
