Report on Management of Students Attributes

We take an immense pleasure in exhibiting the welfare of students provided by Anwarul Uloom College. The report presents the information on the attributes which the College encourage to improve their entire personality.

The Institute forms various committees for college administrative functions. The committees are formed by meticulous group of faculty and students. The NSS Committee, Cultural Committee and Sports Committee are three of these committees which plan co-curricular, extra-curricular and cultural activities for the students to participate and acuminate their talents. Students are also motivated to participate in various events held at the State, National and International levels, viz. fencing, rowing, kho-kho, cricket, kabaddi and badminton.

The students have an active participation in different youth festivals and cultural events. Cultural and sports committee also co-ordinated efficiently in organising numerous social service- related events for students.

A programme on "Code of Conduct" was organised on 05th November, 2022 and "Code of Ethics" was organised on 15th December, 2022, for students. The professors gave a presentation to the students about the importance of maintaining a code of conduct and code of ethics policies on both personal and academic level followed by briefing on both.

Anwarul Uloom College also organizes yearly "Code of Conduct" awareness events for the teaching and non-teaching staff. The curriculum inculcates the mandatory moral principles, which may be developed by the teaching profession itself for supervision.
