...with a 3-0 victory over Nottingham Forest.

Liverpool's result will give hope to its title rivals after Fabian Schär's 20th-minute equalizer at St James' Park. Arne Slot's team had twice come back from a goal down to take the lead in the 83rd through Mohamed Salah's second goal of the match. But the Merseyside club was denied an eighth-straight win in all competitions when Newcastle produced a fightback of its own.

"I have mixed feelings, we were outstanding in the second half, but we were not good enough in the first half," Slot said. Chelsea and Arsenal took advantage. Chelsea's third league win in a row puts it ahead of Arsenal on goal difference.

City also reduced the gap and is nine points behind Liverpool after finally ending the worst run of results of Pep Guardiola's managerial career. "We needed it. The club, the players, everyone needed to win," Guardiola said.

Thrilling clash

After wins over Real Madrid and City last week, Liverpool's title credentials were given a stern test by Newcastle, which led at halftime through Alexander Isak and again in the second half through Anthony Gordon.

Goals from Curtis Jones and Salah twice leveled the game before Salah looked to have sealed the win late on. Schär equalized after Liverpool goalkeeper Caoimhin Jaden Sancho targeted in the Mary's Stadium.

Southampton had briefly leveled the game through Joe Aribo, but Chelsea, already 3-1 up and in control, when Jack Stephens was sent off before the break.

Arteta vs Amorim

Arsenal inflicted a first loss on new United head coach Ruben Amorim with a 2-0 win at the Emirates Stadium. Two goals from second-half corners made the difference, with Jurrien Timber and William Saliba finding the back of the net, but Arsenal still slipped to third.
