Integrity Pledge for Citizens

I believe that corruption has been one of the major obstacles to economic, political and social progress of our country.

I believe that all stakeholders such as Government, citizens and private sector need to work together to eradicate corruption.

I realize that every citizen should be vigilant and commit to highest standards of honesty and integrity at all times and support the fight against corruption.

I, therefore, pledge:

- To follow probity and rule of law in all walks of life;
- To neither take nor offer bribe;
- To perform all tasks in an honest and transparent manner;
- To act in public interest;
- To lead by example exhibiting integrity in personal behaviour;
- To report any incident of corruption to the appropriate agency

Title of the Program: Induction Program

Date: September 28, 2024

Venue: RJP HALL, AUC

Time: 11:00 a.m.

Organized by: Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC), AUC

Participants: First-year UG Students

Introduction:

The Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) of Anwarul Uloom College has successfully organized an Induction Program for the newly admitted UG students. The program aimed to familiarize students with the institutional ethos, academic framework, and extracurricular opportunities, ensuring a smooth transition into their college journey.

Objectives of the Program:

- To introduce students to the institution's culture, values, and mission.
- To provide insights into the academic curriculum, rules, and regulations.
- To highlight the importance of extracurricular activities and overall personality development.
- To foster a sense of belonging among students.

Inaugural Session:

- Welcome Address: Delivered by Dr. Mehdi Bano, who emphasized the importance of holistic education.
- Keynote Address: Prof. Ahmed Baig, Director, Anwarul Uloom Group of Institutions, focusing on the importance of professional education in the modern world.
- Introduction to Institutional Values: Presentation on the history, mission, and vision of the institution. Overview of facilities and resources available on campus, including libraries, laboratories, and sports facilities.
- Academic Orientation: Detailed briefing on the academic structure, examination system, and grading policy by the Academic Coordinator.

- Introduction to faculty members of the UG departments.
- Co-curricular and Extracurricular Opportunities: Presentations by club representatives on various student clubs and societies, including cultural, sports, and professional clubs.
- Encouragement to participate in upcoming events and competitions.

Q&A Session: Open forum where students clarified doubts regarding academics, campus facilities, and extracurricular activities.

Valedictory Session:

- Distribution of Snacks to staff and students
- Feedback collected from students to understand their experience.
- Vote of thanks delivered by Dr. Siraj Basha, Head Department of Business Administration

Highlights of the Program:

- Active participation of students in interactive and ice-breaking sessions.
- Valuable insights shared by the guest speaker, which inspired students.
- Positive feedback from students, appreciating the well-organized schedule and informative sessions.

Conclusion: The induction program organized by IQAC proved to be an enriching experience for the first-year UG students. It not only introduced them to the academic and extracurricular aspects of college life but also fostered a sense of community and belonging. The program set a positive tone for their academic journey and laid the foundation for their holistic development.

DETAILED REPORT ON NUTRITION WEEK CELEBRATION

The Department of Nutrition and Dietetics, Anwarul Uloom College, organized a Nutrition Week Celebration from 25th September, 2024 to 1st October, 2024.

Introduction & Objective

The Nutrition Week was designed to promote awareness and knowledge about nutrition, dietary practices, and their impact on health among students and faculty. The event aimed to blend theoretical knowledge with practical applications through various interactive programs.

Organizing Committee

The event was coordinated by the Department of Nutrition and Dietetics. Faculty members supervised the activities, while student volunteers managed logistics, publicity, and event execution.

Event Schedule & Description

The week-long program included six distinct events:

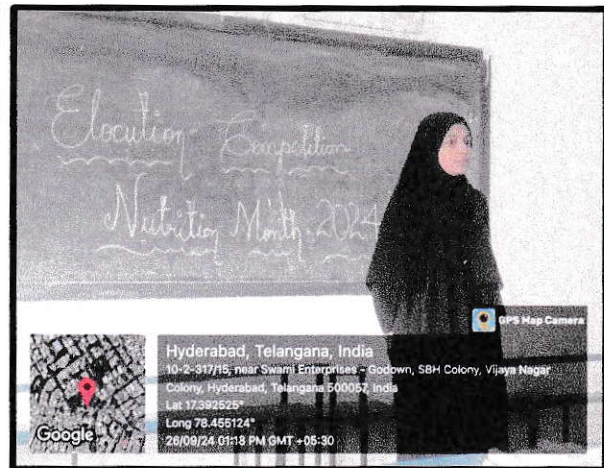

1. Seminar on Nourish to Flourish (25-09-2024):

- Focus: Hands-on training on nutritional assessment, meal planning, and dietary modifications.
- Activities: Demonstrations by nutrition experts, interactive sessions on food labeling, and diet analysis software usage.
- Outcome: Participants gained practical skills in designing balanced diets.

2. Elocution Competition (26-09-2024):

- Focus: Public speaking on nutrition-related topics like malnutrition, dietary myths, or functional foods.
- Activities: Students delivered speeches judged on content, delivery, and relevance.
- Outcome: Enhanced communication skills and awareness of nutritional issues.

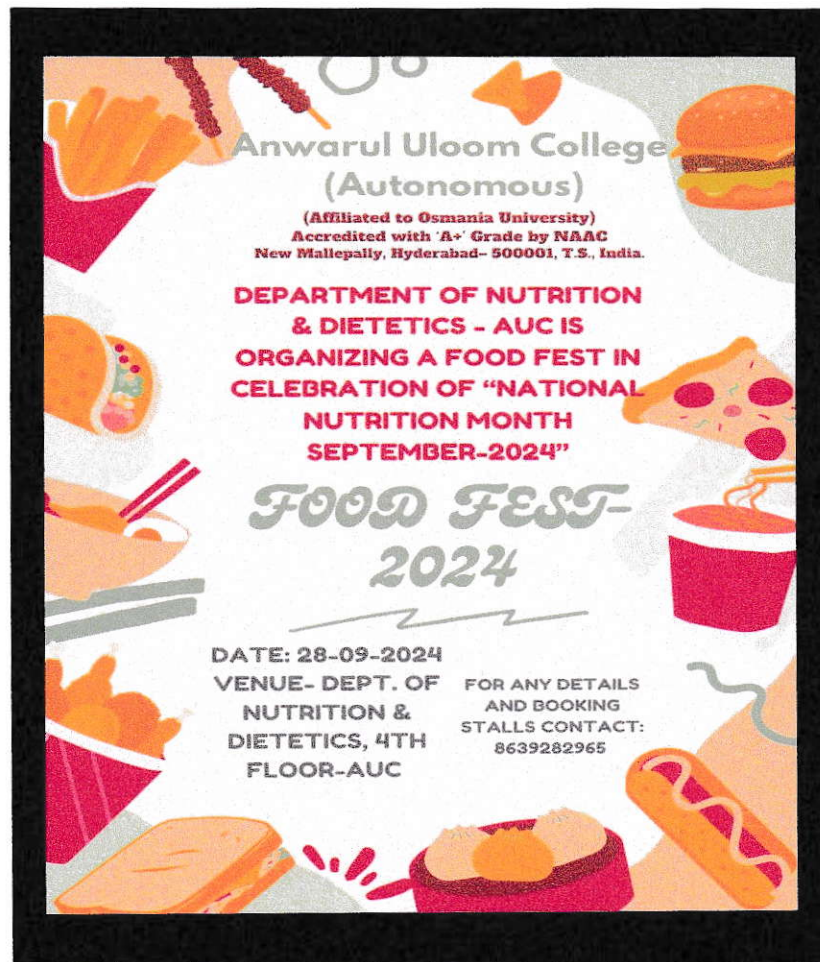

3. Poster Presentation (27-09-2024):

- Focus: Research and informative displays on dietary habits, nutritional deficiencies, or innovative food products.
- Activities: Posters were evaluated for creativity, scientific accuracy, and presentation.
- Outcome: Encouraged research-oriented thinking and visual communication of nutrition concepts.

4. Food Fest (28-09-2024):

- Focus: Preparation and showcase of healthy, balanced dishes representing various Cuisines.
- Activities: Cooking demonstrations, taste sessions, and nutritional analysis of recipes.
- Outcome: Promoted understanding of healthy cooking methods and ingredient choices.

5. Prize Distribution Ceremony (01-10-2024):

- Focus: Recognition of participants' efforts and achievements during the week.
- Activities: Awards for winners of elocution, poster, and other events; motivational speeches by faculty.
- Outcome: Celebrated accomplishments and inspired further interest in nutrition.

Participation & Engagement

- Students: Active involvement in all events, showcasing creativity and knowledge.
- Faculty: Guided participants and evaluated performances.
- Guests: External nutrition experts attended the workshop and food fest, providing industry insights.

Impact & Outcomes

- ✓ Increased awareness about the importance of balanced nutrition and healthy lifestyles.
- ✓ Enhanced practical skills in meal planning, nutritional assessment, and research presentation.
- ✓ Strengthened teamwork and communication abilities among students.

Challenges & Learnings

- Coordinating multiple events within a tight schedule required meticulous planning.
- Ensuring inclusive participation was managed by offering diverse event types.
- Feedback suggested adding more interactive sessions in future programs.

Conclusion

The Nutrition Week was a successful initiative by the Department of Nutrition and Dietetics, fulfilling its objective of educating and inspiring students about nutrition. The variety of events catered to different interests, ensuring comprehensive engagement.

Recommendations For Future Events

- Include interdisciplinary collaborations with other health departments.
- Extend the program duration for deeper exploration of topics.
- Incorporate community outreach programs focusing on nutrition education.

Report on “Literary Competition”

Title of the Program: “Literary Competitions”

Date: On 3rd & 4th October, 2024

Timing: 10:00 am to 12:00 pm

Venue: RJP Hall

Objectives of the Literary Competition:

- 1. To Encourage Creative Interpretation: Inspire participants to interpret literary themes or works creatively through visual art, speech, and writing.
- 2. To Develop Communication Skills: Enhance students' abilities to convey ideas effectively—visually (poster), verbally (elocution), and in written form (essay).
- 3. To Foster Critical Thinking: Prompt participants to analyze literary concepts, craft arguments, and present insights in engaging ways across the three formats.
- 4. To Promote Literary Appreciation: Encourage exploration and appreciation of literary themes, characters, and cultural contexts through diverse expression modes.
- 5. To Build Confidence and Presentation Skills: Help students gain confidence in public speaking (elocution), visual storytelling (poster), and structured writing (essay), useful for academic and personal growth.

SESSION-WISE PROCEEDINGS:

Session 1&2 On 3rd October 2024

Session 1: Poster Making:

Time: 10:00 am - 12:00 pm

Objective: Encourage visual interpretation of a given literary theme.

Activities:

Session 4: Valedictory and Award Ceremony:

Time: 11:00 am- 12:00 pm

Activities:

- 11:00 am: Judges' feedback and announcement of winners.
- 11:15 am: Distribution of prizes for Poster Making, Elocution, Essay Writing.
- 11:45 am: Closing remarks and vote of thanks.
- 12:00 pm: End of competition.

Outcomes of the Literary Competitions :

1. Enhanced Creative Expression: Participants will showcase their creativity through visual art (poster), spoken word (elocution), and written narratives (essay), exploring literary themes in diverse formats.
2. Improved Communication Skills: Students will develop effective communication techniques—visual storytelling in posters, persuasive speaking in elocution, and clear writing in essays.
3. Critical Thinking & Analysis: Participants will analyze literary themes, craft arguments (essay), and synthesize ideas into impactful visuals (poster) or speeches (elocution).
4. Boosted Confidence & Public Speaking: Elocution participants will gain public speaking skills and confidence, while all participants will feel empowered to share their ideas.
5. Appreciation for Literary Themes & Collaboration: The competition will foster an appreciation for literature's relevance in art and society, encouraging teamwork (in planning posters) and individual excellence

PROGRAM REPORT

Program Name: Investiture Ceremony

Date: 12th October, 2024

Organized by: Department of English

Venue: RJP HALL, AUC

Number of Participants: 60

REPORT:

The Department of English organized the Investiture Ceremony on 12th October, 2024 at RJP HALL, Anwarul Uloom College (Autonomous). The event aimed to formally induct the newly selected student council members for the academic year.

The Programme commenced with the recitation of Kir'at-e-Kalam-e-Pak, creating a solemn and respectful atmosphere. This was followed by a warm Welcome Address delivered by Capt. Dr. Kausar Begum Khan. Dignitaries and faculty members then addressed the gathering, emphasizing the significance of leadership, responsibility, and commitment in student life.

The highlight of the ceremony was the conferring of badges and sashes to the newly appointed student leaders, symbolizing their roles and duties. The leaders took an oath to uphold the values of the institution and serve with integrity and dedication.

The ceremony concluded with High Tea, providing an opportunity for interaction among faculty, students, and the newly inducted leaders. The Programme was conducted smoothly and successfully with active participation from staff and students.

PROGRAM REPORT:

Event: Fresher's Party

Date: 30th January, 2025

Time: 2:00 PM

Venue: RJP Hall, AUC

Organized by: Anwarul Uloom College (Autonomous)

The college is organizing a Fresher's Party to welcome the incoming students for the academic year 2025. The event is scheduled to take place on 30th January 2025 at 2:00 PM in the RJP Hall, AUC. This event aims to offer new students an opportunity to socialize, interact with faculty members, and become familiar with the college community.

The primary objective of the Fresher's Party is to create an environment where the new students feel welcomed, valued, and excited about their time in college. It will also provide an opportunity for students to connect with one another and start building lasting friendships. Additionally, the event is aimed at strengthening the bond between students and the faculty.

The Fresher's Party is an important event in the college calendar, as it marks the beginning of a new academic journey for many students. The presence of both teaching staff and students is essential to make the event successful and to ensure a positive start to the new academic year.

Organized by: Anwarul Uloom College, (Autonomous)

The Farewell Party for the outgoing students was held on 3rd February 2025 at RJP Hall, AUC, with the aim to celebrate the academic and personal achievements of the graduating students and provide a platform for them to reflect on their time at the college.

The event begins at 2:00 PM with a Welcome Speech. This was followed by heartfelt speeches from outgoing students, where they shared their experiences and memories. A series of cultural performances including music, dance, and drama added to the celebratory atmosphere. The highlight of the event was the Award Distribution Ceremony, where outstanding students were recognized for their academic and extracurricular achievements. The event continued with a group photo session and ended with refreshments and informal interactions between students and faculty. It was attended by faculty, staff, and the graduating students, creating an atmosphere of camaraderie and nostalgia.

The program was well-received by all attendees, with positive feedback regarding the cultural performances and overall organization.

Overall, the event successfully marked the end of an important chapter for the graduating students and provided a memorable experience that will be cherished by all participants.

PROGRAM REPORT

Title of the Program: Blood Donation Camp

Date: 21st February 2025

Time: 10:00 a.m. onwards

Venue: RJP Hall, AUC

Organized by: IQAC, NSS & NCC in Collaboration with Income Tax Department

Medical Support: TX Hospitals, Banjara Hills

Introduction

Blood donation is a noble act that saves lives and promotes social responsibility. With the objective of encouraging voluntary blood donation and creating awareness about its importance, the Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC), National Service Scheme (NSS), and National Cadet Corps (NCC) of the college jointly organized a Blood Donation Camp in collaboration with the Income Tax Department, with medical support from TX Hospitals, Banjara Hills.

Objectives of the Program

- To promote voluntary blood donation among students and staff
- To create awareness about the importance of blood donation in saving lives
- To instill a sense of social responsibility and humanitarian values
- To support healthcare needs through safe and organized blood collection

Program Proceedings

The Blood Donation Camp commenced at 10:00 a.m. at RJP Hall, AUC. The venue was well-arranged with registration desks, medical examination areas, blood collection units, and post-donation refreshment counters.

Medical professionals from TX Hospitals conducted pre-donation health screenings to ensure donor eligibility and safety. Students and staff members actively participated in the camp with great enthusiasm and a strong sense of service.

Volunteers from NSS and NCC efficiently managed registration, donor guidance, and crowd control, ensuring smooth conduct of the program. All safety and hygiene protocols were strictly followed throughout the event.

Participation and Outcome

The program witnessed active participation from students, faculty and other staff members, reflecting the institution's commitment to social welfare. A significant number of blood units were successfully collected and will be utilized to help patients in need.

Participants were provided with refreshments and certificates of appreciation, motivating them to continue contributing to such noble causes.

Conclusion

The Blood Donation Camp was a great success, fulfilling its objectives and creating awareness about the life-saving impact of blood donation. The collaborative efforts of IQAC, NSS, NCC, Income Tax Department, and TX Hospitals played a vital role in the effective execution of the program. The event strengthened the spirit of social responsibility and community service among participants.
