Title of the Program: Induction Program

Date: September 28, 2024

Venue: RJP HALL, AUC

Time: 11:00 a.m.

Organized by: Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC), AUC

Participants: First-year UG Students

Introduction:

The Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) of Anwarul Uloom College has successfully organized an Induction Program for the newly admitted UG students. The program aimed to familiarize students with the institutional ethos, academic framework, and extracurricular opportunities, ensuring a smooth transition into their college journey.

Objectives of the Program:

- To introduce students to the institution's culture, values, and mission.
- To provide insights into the academic curriculum, rules, and regulations.
- To highlight the importance of extracurricular activities and overall personality development.
- To foster a sense of belonging among students.

Inaugural Session:

- Welcome Address: Delivered by Dr. Mehdi Bano, who emphasized the importance of holistic education.
- Keynote Address: Prof. Ahmed Baig, Director, Anwarul Uloom Group of Institutions, focusing on the importance of professional education in the modern world.
- Introduction to Institutional Values: Presentation on the history, mission, and vision of the institution. Overview of facilities and resources available on campus, including libraries, laboratories, and sports facilities.
- Academic Orientation: Detailed briefing on the academic structure, examination system, and grading policy by the Academic Coordinator.

- Introduction to faculty members of the UG departments.
- Co-curricular and Extracurricular Opportunities: Presentations by club representatives on various student clubs and societies, including cultural, sports, and professional clubs.
- Encouragement to participate in upcoming events and competitions.

Q&A Session: Open forum where students clarified doubts regarding academics, campus facilities, and extracurricular activities.

Valedictory Session:

- Distribution of Snacks to staff and students
- Feedback collected from students to understand their experience.
- Vote of thanks delivered by Dr. Siraj Basha, Head Department of Business Administration

Highlights of the Program:

- Active participation of students in interactive and ice-breaking sessions.
- Valuable insights shared by the guest speaker, which inspired students.
- Positive feedback from students, appreciating the well-organized schedule and informative sessions.

Conclusion: The induction program organized by IQAC proved to be an enriching experience for the first-year UG students. It not only introduced them to the academic and extracurricular aspects of college life but also fostered a sense of community and belonging. The program set a positive tone for their academic journey and laid the foundation for their holistic development.

PROGRAM REPORT

Name of the Program: Dysmenorrhea Awareness Workshop

Organized by: Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) in collaboration with Blue Cross Laboratories Pvt. Ltd.

Date: December 19, 2024

Time: 2:00 p.m.

Venue: RJP Hall, AUC

Number of Participants: Approximately 100

The Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) of the college, in collaboration with Blue Cross Laboratories Pvt. Ltd., organized a Dysmenorrhea Awareness Workshop on December 19, 2024, at 2:00 p.m. in the RJP Hall. The workshop aimed to create awareness about menstrual health, particularly focusing on understanding and managing dysmenorrhea among female students and teaching staff.

The session was conducted by experts from Blue Cross Laboratories Pvt. Ltd., who provided valuable insights into the causes, symptoms, and types of dysmenorrhea. They explained various management techniques including lifestyle modifications, diet, exercise, and safe medication practices. The resource persons also addressed common myths related to menstruation and encouraged an open and healthy discussion on women's health issues.

A total of 100 female participants, including students and teaching staff members, attended the workshop. The interactive Q&A session allowed participants to seek clarification and receive practical guidance on managing menstrual pain effectively.

The workshop successfully enhanced awareness and understanding of menstrual health, encouraged dialogue, and equipped participants with knowledge to handle dysmenorrhea with confidence. The IQAC plans to continue organizing such health-oriented programs for the benefit of the college community.

Outcomes:

1. Increased Awareness: Increased awareness on women's health, nutrition, and wellness, empowering women to make informed choices.
2. Enhanced Confidence: Enhanced self-confidence and self-esteem among women participants, inspiring them to take charge of their lives.
3. Improved Self-Defense Skills: Improved knowledge and skills on self-defense and martial arts among women participants, empowering them with confidence and self-reliance.

Conclusion:

The International Women's Day celebrations at Anwarul-Uloom College (AUC) were a memorable experience, fostering a sense of community and solidarity among students, faculty members, and staff. We look forward to continuing our efforts towards promoting women's empowerment and inclusion.
